ACADEMIC IMPROVEMENT PLAN

Students whose appeals are approved must complete an Academic Improvement Plan in order to receive financial aid. If they do not meet the requirements of the Academic Improvement Plan, their financial aid will be suspended .

RE-ESTABLISHING SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS

Students who do not maintain satisfactory academic progress lose eligibility for financial aid until satisfactory academic progress is met. Students may regain satisfactory academic progress by completing enough coursework to raise his/her GPA and / meet the minimum completion requirements. At that time, students may request an SAP review and if they meet the minimum standards, their SAP status will be updated .
